News to Use

We had a very busy month in February and March is gearing up to be more of the same. There are several pages of information being sent to you along with this newsletter this month for you to read, save and mark your calendars.

The Cedar Key Lions Foundation is generating its quarterly fund to our club. Enclosed you will find a tentative schedule of disbursement to local non-profits and Lion Charities. Your club can and is making a difference in the lives of our fellow citizens!. This is in addition to our ongoing Eyesight, Eye Surgery, and Hearing aid efforts.

Membership Recruitment Dinner is Tuesday, March 25th at the Island Hotel. Bring someone you know would make a great Lion, but has never been asked!! See insert for details and place the information sheet on what Lions do in your church or office or share with your coffee group. Let people know about us and get them interested in getting involved!

Board Meeting Notes

Due to a lack of a quorum, there was no Board Meeting in February. (Yes, our board members have other life commitments going on, just as the rest of the community does.) But that doesn't mean there has been no activity.

Our ad sales for the Old Florida Celebration of the Arts festival guide are underway and plans are being finalized to begin our ramp building project. We will be providing Hands-On help with building a ramp to help a Cedar Key resident with access to their home. Those of us less "handy" at sawing or hammering will be needed to grill up some chow for the hungry crew. Sure to be a lot of fulfillment in both areas.

We have another NEW member. Betty Asbury has joined our club and already dived in to help with the cooking of the wonderful Valentine Day Dinner. Betty is a registered nurse, working at Haven Hospice and still finding time to give to Cedar Key. Welcome Betty!

Jennie Pinto Receives Award

At our last meeting on February 26th. Lions Club Membership Chairman Bob Robertson pins the Lions Membership Key award on Jennie Pinto recognizing her recruitment and member sponsorship efforts for the Cedar Key Lions Club.

- ▶ Sponsor a new member! Bring someone to the recruitment dinner on March 25th.
